Subject: Re: Publications Review Board Completion of Manuscript by Michael Morell

Thank you for getting to us today the redacted material responding to our January and early February requests.

In order to fully understand your determinations -- we will have to visit your facility and examine the original underlying documents. While these documents are important -- we are most interested in expeditiously seeing the results of your work on Mr. Morell's manuscript. Based on my call with [redacted] earlier this week -- I understand that you expect to have the manuscript resolved to your satisfaction in the very near future (our original request was to have everything settled by June 3). Therefore, it makes sense that we wait until your work on the manuscript work is finished - to schedule a visit. At that point, Mr. Morell and I will be happy to come out and look at all the documents and proposed redactions and discuss matters with you in order to determine areas in which we may request reconsideration.

Thanks again,
